ENCOUNTER, ENGAGEMENT AND EXCHANGE:
HOW NATIVE POPULATIONS OF THE AMERICAS TRANSFORMED THE WORLD

You are cordially invited to attend the 53rd annual meeting of the Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials (SALALM)

SALALM 53, titled Encounter, Engagement and Exchange: How Native Populations of the Americas Transformed the World, will focus on the mutual exchange that occurred during the encounter of the old and new worlds to explore how social, economic, culinary, agricultural, environmental, medical and scientific disciplines and practices were transformed on both sides of the Atlantic and how these transformations have been documented. In particular, the conference will underscore the unique contributions made by the indigenous populations of the Americas and the ways in which the outlook of the world was enhanced and broadened by the unique contributions of these cultures. Panels will include scholarly presentations related to the conference theme and will also include papers on practical issues of librarianship related to the topic.

Sponsors of SALALM LIII are The Latin American Library, Howard-Tilton Memorial Library and the Stone Center for Latin American Studies of Tulane University.
